

Vintage Planes

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 02 December 2010 15:36 - Last Updated Monday, 07 February 2011 18:54

We come from a long line of pilots! My Grandfather flew Sopworth Pups in the war for the RFC (Royal Flying Corps), this later became known as the RAF. The photographs below were taken by him during WW1 on the battlefields in France.

Anton

